

What is the PV Fill Factor?

The Fill Factor is essentially a measure of the efficiency of a PV module, represented by the ratio of the actual power output to the theoretical maximum power output. It is a value depending on factors such as the type of silicon used in the module, the temperature, and the intensity of the light. However, the deviation from the expected value or changes in Fill Factor can provide an indication that a fault is present.

If you require more help, please contact us at <https://www.seaward.com/gb/enquiry/>.